

Watson. 23. May 1876.

My dear Sir:-

Your friendly
note of this date has given me much pleasure.

24
Coming, as it does from one for whom I entertain the highest respect & esteem, as a friend & neighbor, & whose name and good works occupy a prominent place in the history of the last half of the first century of this Republic, this letter is especially gratifying to me.

Should your kind wishes that I may live to celebrate my own centennial be realized, I sincerely hope you may be here to witness it.

Very truly yours

Saml L. Cobb.

Wm. Lloyd Garrison Esq.
